1. Provide all building HVAC cooling using chilled water from the Central Utilities Plant where available. Local compressors or DX systems within the building to use plug system chilled water as condensing water with the exception that domestic water is permitted only for emergency backup.